

Festival Itinerary

Saturday

Family

10am – 10.30am
at Windermere Jetty Museum

Doctor Who Exhibition

An exhibition to celebrate the 60th anniversary of Doctor Who comic. Have a look at comics featuring every major Doctor, plus the first ever Doctor Who strip from 1964. Plus there will be some newly designed monsters! There may also be actual Daleks! Watch out!

10.30am – 11.30am
at Windermere Jetty Museum

Little LICAF Workshop/Free activities for Under 12s

Free and fabulous workshops for under 12s, presented by some of our comic artist guests. Keep an eye on our website and social media to see who will be presenting, and when. Hosted by Marc Jackson and Room4Comics. Free activities around the Jetty Museum including face painting, badge making and activity sheets.

11.30am – 12.30pm
at Windermere Jetty Museum

1230pm – 1pm ish

Lunch (Dinner if you are Northern)

Grab some lunch from the Jetty Museum Café, bring a picnic, or head into town to look for something to eat...

1pm ish – 4pm
Around The Glebe

Comic Marketplace, Dickie Geocaching & Comic Art Trail

Head to The Glebe where you will find our Comic Marketplace on the tennis courts. Browse dozens of tables from creators, publisher and shops. Follow the Comic Art Trail. Find awesome artwork and freshly painted murals in shop windows and on walls around town. For more details see the programme and maps. Try the free Dickie Geocaching (like a digital treasure hunt) – starting at the Tourist Info Centre, approximately 45 minutes woking with free stickers from the TIC if completed.

4pm – 5pm
at Old Laundry Theatre

Doctor Who Event

Be part of the creation of a special Doctor Who comic strip using the winning monster from our Festival monster challenge competition! Watch as panels are drawn and the story is created with the help of the audience.
